information has been gleaned from various church, historical and ords, as well as from personal interviews.

Murdock's experiences with the prophet Joseph Smith and his on the Mormon frontier may be almost unbelievable to today's ne recall, but nearly every incident mentioned in his journal is some other source, as is noted in the many references cited by f the story of his life recalls the strength and courage of pioneer e who never knew them, or renews the faith of even one of today's th, the labor represented herein will have been well repaid.
